

XM is refreshing to listen to. I pay for the service and do not have to listen to all the commercials, as I travel I can listen to the same station, and the sound is clear. I travel for a living the assortment of station is great. No matter where I am at the station is the same without hunting in the area for something to listen to.

I am sold on XM and wish there were more stations.